

How we deal with an appeal

- Keep matters confidential
- Manage the appeal in a consistent, transparent and effective manner
- Advise the appellant of the outcome

External appeal

At all times you can contact Department of Mines Industry Regulation and Safety for more information and advice to assist with your appeal.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of the Appeal you are entitled to lodge an application with Magistrates Court within 30 days of receiving the Appeals Outcome.

Visit www.magistratescourt.wa.gov.au. or call 1300 306 017.

Department of Mines Industry
Regulation and Safety

Ph : 1300 304 054

Website:

[www.commerce.wa.gov.au/
renting](http://www.commerce.wa.gov.au/renting)

Appeals

Western Australia

08 9492 7135

sahwa.info@salvationarmy.org.au

9 Aberdeen Street

Perth WA 6000

Your concerns provide us with an opportunity for positive action

What is an Appeal?

If you do not agree with a decision made by SAH, you can formally ask for the decision to be reviewed. This is an appeal.

Decisions related to the following matters can be appealed:

- Housing eligibility
- Property allocation
- Transfer or potential transfer to another property
- Calculation or imposition of rent, levy, charge or subsidy outside of your tenancy agreement
- Condition, modification or improvement of your property
- Anything that affects your occupation or use of the premises.

Making an Appeal with Salvation Army Housing

You make contact in person, by telephone or in writing, expressing dissatisfaction with a decision made by SAH.

You provide the following details in writing:

- Name and contact details of person lodging the appeal
- Name and contact details of the respondent
- A clear statement giving the reasons why you think the decision is wrong

SAH will determine the outcome of your appeal within a timely manner.

Once the appeal review is completed, you will be advised of the outcome in writing explaining the reason(s) for the decision